FLIES—PREVENTION OF THE BREEDING OF.

SECTION 1. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm, or corporation to suffer or permit, or have upon their premises, whether owned or occupied by them, either one or more of the following insanitary fly-producing, disease-causing conditions, to wit:

First. Manure which is not securely protected from flies.

Second. Any privy, vault, cesspool, sink, pit, or like place which is not securely protected from flies.

Third. Garbage which is not securely protected from flies.

Fourth. Vegetable waste, trash, litter, rags, or refuse of any kind, nature, or description in which flies may breed or multiply.

SEC. 2. Every act or thing done, made, permitted, allowed, or continued in violation of section 1 of this ordinance shall be deemed a nuisance.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the city health officer to ascertain and cause all nuisances, declared to be such in sections 1 and 2 of this ordinance, to be abated, and he shall have authority, either by himself or by his agents, or deputies, in the daytime, to enter upon any premises, and to enter any house, stable, store, or any building in order to make a thorough examination thereof, for the purpose of determining whether or not any of such insanitary conditions mentioned in section 1 of this ordinance exists.

SEC. 4. In order to better carry out the provisions of this ordinance, the health officer may serve a notice in writing upon the owner, occupant, or agent of any lot, building, or premises, in or upon which any nuisance, declared to be such in section 1 of this ordinance, may be found, or upon him who may be the cause of such nuisance, requiring him to abate the same in such manner as the city health officer may direct, and within a reasonable time, to be fixed in the notice; but failure to give notice, as provided herein, shall not relieve the author of any nuisance from the obligation to abate such nuisance, or from the penalty provided for the maintenance thereof.

SEC. 5. In case of neglect or refusal of any person to abate any nuisance defined by this ordinance, after notice in writing has been served upon him, as provided in section 4 of this ordinance, and within the time in said notice specified, it is hereby
